Summary

Established Staffing Franchise for sale in Yolo County.

The staffing industry is booming, and there has never been a better time to join.

Business Model:

By matching clients with qualified candidates, this franchise puts people to work and helps businesses succeed. Job seekers benefit from flexible work schedules and job placement services. Franchisees build consultative relationships with owners and decision makers in small- to medium-size businesses (10-500 employees) offering a variety of staffing and HR solutions, consulting and training. The franchise offers protected territories based on demographic profiles, including the number of jobs within an area. There are varied opportunities for profit through multiple service lines, including:

- Temporary and Flexible Staffing
- Evaluation and Direct Hire
- Contract and Full-Time Professional Staffing
- Human Resource Services
