SummaryGreat Start-Up Opportunity, High Growth Industry

The home and business waste receptacle cleaning - trash, recycling and compost receptacles, by an industrial cleaning truck is quickly becoming a high-growth industry across the US. The owners of this company have spent over $100,000 developing this company and it is ready to launch.

Note: This business is NOT currently operating and only operated a few months 2 years ago. Selling the Opportunity.

Their new, large, industrial truck uses state-of-the-art pressure and steam cleaning technology to ensure a quick and thorough cleaning. The truck is completely painted with an easily identifiable and animated logo. They have developed a very user friendly website that allows customers to set up an account and schedule monthly, quarterly or one-time services.

How it works: the cleaning truck pulls up curbside of a home or business, lifts the receptacle into the truck upside down where its gets a quick pressure and steam cleaning and then its is dropped back onto the curb. Simple + easy system to operate. The company could handle a high volume of customers daily.
