Summary

Terrific, established internet beauty supply business with eBay and Amazon store

This successful business will work for a hands on operator or an investor looking for a great return on investment.

Business buys direct from many manufacturers so it can offer excellent pricing to customers by eliminating middle men.

They have own branded products with high margins.

Longevity and success enable the business to carry some beauty products not available at most beauty supply stores.

Owner has other business interests and cannot devote the time and energy to take the business to a new level.
